AND IT SHALL BE CALLED

THE WAY OF

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest
my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell
in the house of the Lord forever.

LILA THRASHER MACKEY

As one who walks among us guiding us ever to truth and right by her exemplary life day by day, she is never too busy to give a cheerful word of greeting, or help in whatever need we may have, whether it be books, a friendly chat or advice in a very important problem. Her Christian character, her friendliness, her gracious manner, and her efficiency as librarian and teacher make us appreciate, love and esteem her. With deep admiration we, the faculty and students, wish to dedicate this annual to our own Mrs. Mackey.

DEDICATION

THE SPENCERS ARE OFF

The Spencers leave from the train station

Friends gather to give Farewells

The look to the fields that are white unto harvest, the hungry souls who stand waiting, the call of the Master result in a family going forth to proclaim the glad tidings of the Prince of Peace among those who stand in such need of salvation. That is the way the Spencers left us. We were sad at their leaving for they were members of our school family. Professor Spencer as principal and friend left many students who will always remember him for his kindly guidance, understanding heart and knowledge of youth's problems. Mrs. Spencer, Glaphre and Nancy Lee helped gladden our way by their sweet spirits and friendly ways. But our hearts are rejoicing too, for we could not have seen such Christian devotion and absolute consecration to the will of God if they had not obeyed His call. "Go ye into all the world" still rings in our ears and we must accept the challenge for this is the hope of the world.

TREVECCA'S 51ST YEAR

Alma Mater

On a hill stands old Trevecca
Lined against the sky,
Standing proud a Christian College
As the years go by.
We will honor and we'll love her,
We will stand for right;
Always carry high her banner,
Hail to the purple and the white!
Fellow students let us honor her,
May we always be
Sons and daughters she'll be proud of
Dear old T.N.C.!

PROPOSED FINE ARTS BUILDING

McKAY HALL, WOMEN'S DORMITORY

T. M. C.

HARDY HALL, MEN'S DORMITORY

Trevecca College is located at the southeast edge of the city of Nashville. The beautiful entrance gate leading from Murfreesboro Road introduces one to a spacious campus of fifty acres with abundant shade trees, situated on one of the many hills which overlook the city.

McKay Hall, women's dormitory, is a brick structure of three stories with forty rooms. The Administration Building is of limestone construction. The administrative offices and the high school classrooms are located in this building. Hardy Hall, one of the dormitories for men, is a large concrete block building of three stories. Tidwell Hall, dormitory for men, is a three-story building of native stone, located across Lester Avenue from Hardy Hall. The President's home is located on Hart Street facing these other three buildings.

The McClurkan Memorial Hall houses the library, the main auditorium, and several spacious classrooms. The Elementary Training School, a frame building, is located on the south campus. An Apartment house of stone construction is located on the oval drive which surrounds the Administration Building.

The College Hill Church has erected a church building at the intersection of Hart Street and Lester Avenue. The Fine Arts Building is under construction and it is the thrill of every student to watch daily its progress.

The students, faculty and alumni are looking for a greater T.N.C. campus in future years. The Board of Trustees has approved a plan whereby a continuous program of improvements can be made.

The President

Trevecca's past and present are foundations upon which to build its future. The records show that Trevecca College has sent out seventy missionaries, which indicates that Trevecca College has been inspiring and training students for the mission field. Today, Trevecca has first place among Nazarene Colleges in the percentage of students planning to go into full-time Christian work. The major goal of Trevecca College in the future should be to serve the Church of the Nazarene. And that service depends upon three major qualities, namely: size, scholarship, and spirituality. To the extent that a college can grow in size and continue to hold high the standards of scholarship and spirituality, its service can be increased. Therefore, the future of Trevecca College should be that it shall grow larger and larger. As to scholarship, in the future we should feel the responsibility to raise the standards of scholarship as the years go on. Young people who have clean minds and pure hearts should honor God by convincing the world that those who go to a Holiness college are better prepared to make intellectual advancement than those who go to other colleges. Last, but not least, spirituality should increase in Trevecca College as the years come and go. We can grow in size and increase in scholarship, but unless we grow in spiritual power, we will fail to be able to render the service the Church of the Nazarene really expects of us.

The High School Forensic Club

OUR OWN T.N.C. H.S.

Trevecca High School is inspirational as well as educational for it teaches boys and girls Christian principles.

Professor Adams has guided the high school through a successful year. The outings and class meetings have shown school spirit and cooperation among the students. The Forensic Club has gained much experience in speaking by its competition with other schools. It will mean so much to the students in future years to look back on their schooldays that were spent in a Christian influence under Christian teachers and be thankful for the rich experiences.

Spiritual Life

CHAPEL SPEAKERS

Spiritual food is spread in our chapel services. The warmth and glow of the Divine in our midst makes it the most elevating hour of the day. The one whose heart is burdened receives a lift from his heavy load. Students find purpose in their life by answering His call. We sit at the Master's feet, and truly new fervor and peace fills our soul. The messages challenge us to higher heights in attaining our goal in life. As we pray "Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven," we pray, too, that our path may lead in the way of holiness for this is where our feet should tread.

In years to come we will think back over the moments we spent in chapel and remember the times as priceless. We will not be able to keep the services but the spirit of them will live in us, working and enabling us to reach others for Christ. The truths and knowledge of faith and love will be stored in our minds and hearts to someday blossom as a rose upon some desert air.

The fellowship and the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love are never broken even though we depart at the end of the year going north, east, south and west. We carry from the spiritual storehouse of Trevecca power to be a blessing to others.

The Ministerial Association is an organization composed of ministerial members of the faculty, ministerial students and those students who are preparing for different types of Christian service. The purpose of its members is to foster high spiritual standards in the college and wherever their influence might reach.

For one week each quarter members of the association furnish the chapel addresses. These are among the finest chapel talks given and the students receive a rich blessing from them. Among their activities this current year has been the promotion of campaigns for the Thanksgiving and Easter missionary offerings.

MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION

STUDENT WIVES

The wives of Trevecca students meet to have fellowship and receive instructions how to be the most efficient minister's wife. The group has accomplished much in the meetings this year under the able leadership of their sponsor. They feel that they are better qualified to carry on their duties in the home and church life.

CHRISTIAN WORKERS

"... Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren ye have done it unto Me." Matt. 25:40.

Christian Workers Association is composed of those students who take an active part in Christian work. Weekly they are engaged in services at the hospitals, jails, juvenile courts and workhouses. A new work at the Tennessee Industrial School has been started. This gives them the privilege of reaching three hundred and fifty boys and girls for Christ. They are given opportunity of occasional services at the Tennessee Reform School. At the County Workhouse permission is granted to pray with the men.

The captains make plans at cabinet meeting

The Association reports that at all the institutions they are giving attention and responding better than ever before. The students are showing a greater interest and are carrying a heavy burden for the lost.

Each Monday night a prayer-meeting is held in the Auditorium.

A special speaker each time inspires the workers with new zeal and determination. There has been a spirit of love and willingness to be of the greatest help. The prayer-meetings have been constantly visited by the presence of the One who said, "Come unto Me, all ye that are weary and heavy laden."

Christian Workers Prayer meeting

Group gives out literature

Students who are preparing for the mission field and those who are interested in the activity of missions meet each Friday after chapel to spend an hour in prayer. Reports are given of the progress of the work in various fields. Perhaps some day from this very group several missionaries will go forth to proclaim the glad tidings. Trevecca already can say that the "sun never sets on Trevecca students," for they are representing her on many fields.

Students who are enrolled as private speech students, and those who have a major or minor in speech are members of the Speech Club. This organization promotes more interest in public speaking, recitals, and dramas.

A play is presented by the students in the spring quarter under the direction of Miss Cooner. Readings are given by speech students in chapel at different times through the year. The Fine Arts Department sponsored the chapel programs for a week this year. During that week a presentation of a radio church service was given by members of the club, also a program centered around the theme, "At the Cross." The activities of the club have been numerous as most of the members are regularly engaged in speech work. As the old adage goes, "Practice makes perfect." These are the best years of our lives. The Christian fellowship of the students, the guidance of a noble faculty and the pursuit of our studies will not easily be forgotten in the future. It will linger with us and will be remembered in happy memories. Our friendships will be lasting; the planning of our life's work will be permanent and our task will be beckoning us as we leave the gates of Trevecca. "How manifold are thy blessings and Thy ways past finding out."

"Reading maketh a full man; conference a ready man; writing an exact man," says Bacon. In the labs, library, music rooms and classes much earnest study is exercised to obtain a well-rounded college education. The classes are opened with prayer and the spirit of a search for the truth prevails always.

Snack Shop, delight of the students

Many of the students find ways in which they can work part time. This gives them a variety in their schedule and enables them to be efficient business people. The enjoyment of the students as they gather for meals is a pleasure to see. After a quarter it gives the student the feeling of being a part of something that is larger than himself and his own circle of friends. Former students come back to visit and most of them stay to be with friends at dinner time.
