Dr. Dan Boone

A yearbook is filled with faces. The popular version on the Web is called "facebook." Years from now your memory will get fuzzy on the names, but you won't forget that face. So you browse this book looking for those familiar faces that bring a smile and hoping to see your own in a place or two.

I find it strange that in a yearbook filled with faces, the theme is "Hands On." I'm wondering why we didn't photograph everyone's hands instead of their faces. Could you recognize your friends by looking at their hands? One of my favorite biblical narratives is the story of Jesus walking on the road to Emmaus with two disciples. It is the weekend of crucifixion and resurrection, but the two disciples don't know about the resurrection. Jesus is now in their "deceased facebook." As he walks with them, they don't recognize him. He is not a stranger, but they do not recognize him by his face. We don't know why. They walk and talk. They invite Jesus to stay for supper. His hands come to the center of the table, break the bread, and then pass it to the two friends. Their eyes are opened, and they recognize the risen Jesus. A little later in the same story Jesus appears in the middle of a room filled with disciples. They also do not recognize him. So he shows them his hands. These are hands that worked in a carpenter's shop, touched lepers, hoisted children into the air, scrubbed dirty feet, broke bread, and were spiked to a cross. When they saw the hands, they knew it was Jesus.

Our hands reveal us. Sherlock Holmes, the famous literary detective, could shake hands and discern a person's work, social standing, family status, and hobbies. Hands speak. As a child, I would sit in church and look at my father's hands. They had milked cows, picked cotton, fought a war, raised a family, overhauled engines, and patted babies to sleep. Dad's history is in his hands. Mine is too.

Trevecca received a gift this year. The statue of the foot-washing Jesus stands in Trevecca's roundabout. Jesus' hands are well crafted by artist/sculptor Scott Stearman. The statue reminds us daily that Christians are known as the followers of Jesus by what we do with our hands. Trevecca students are marked by "hands-on" spirituality. We believe that God came to us with the human hands of Jesus. We also believe that we are sent into the world to be the human hands of Jesus. So as you browse this book, the faces will be familiar, but the hands reveal us. History is what we do with our hands.

Blessings,
Dan Boone

Timothy M. Green

Because “hands on” is such an appropriate description for Chaplain Tim Green, the decision about the yearbook dedication was easily made. Chaplain Green’s contributions in many areas of life at Trevecca Nazarene University reveal that he is a hands-on person. Teaching, leading chapel, participating in annual Trevecca Around the Globe (TAG) trips, serving the denomination, and publishing—he is involved. Additionally, he models leadership—academically and spiritually—for students.

His life is evidence of his dedication to his calling. He graduated from Olivet Nazarene University (major in religion/minor in Greek) and from Vanderbilt University (M.A. and Ph.D.—Old Testament studies). Along the way he was ordained and served on the staffs of three Churches of the Nazarene—Hendersonville (TN), Springdale (OH), and Nashville Grace.

In 1991 he became a full-time member of the Trevecca religion faculty. His responsibilities at Trevecca grew through the years—chaplain, chair of the Division of Religion and Philosophy, and finally dean of the School of Religion. He finds time to minister at denominational events, on the campuses of other Nazarene universities and schools, and in foreign countries. His hands-on life is appreciated at Trevecca.

- Statue of Jesus

Interesting facts about the Jesus statue:

- Scott Stearman crafted it in his studio in Green Mountain Falls, Colorado.
- Weight: 300-350 lbs.
- Height: (From base to top) 16 feet
- Design took about 6 months, with an additional 3 months for casting.
- The actual statue is 6 feet tall.
- The sculpture is made out of solid bronze.

"The year Jesus came to Trevecca"

Left: Stanley the Squirrel foretold the coming of Jesus to the roundabout. Right: TNU alumna Cynthia Jones, along with the help of the Alumni Association Board, was in charge of the project.

The hard work and effort of the TNU Alumni Association Board of Directors paid off when the Jesus statue arrived on campus. After much anticipation the 6' bronze statue of Jesus was put into place on September 20, 2005. The event marked a momentous day in the history of Trevecca's campus. The statue was dedicated on November 4, 2005, as part of the Homecoming Week festivities. The base of the roundabout is inscribed with a passage taken from John 13:14-15. The verses states, "If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you." The statue with its inscription stands as a visible reminder to the Trevecca Community of Trevecca's mission to produce servant-leaders.

Welcome Week

Every school year at TNU begins with Welcome Week. This year's Welcome Week was a great experience for everyone who participated and a time for meeting new friends and getting reacquainted with old ones. SGA offered a wide variety of activities and events for students. Welcome Week showcased the talents and abilities of some TNU students and alumni through concerts and other events. Overall, Welcome Week was a great kick off to another year at good old TNU.

Mat Kearney

Concert

The Mat Kearney concert was a huge event this year, easily becoming the biggest musical performance that Trevecca has hosted in recent years. Trevecca alumnus Michael Logen and Belmont graduate Andy Davis opened the show, and Mat Kearney's headlining performance rocked the Quad. Trevecca students, as well many off-campus guests, listened and enjoyed as Mat sang some of his most popular songs.

Michael Logen is a triple threat, playing guitar, keyboard, and harmonica.

Trojan Idol

has become a highly anticipated event since its start three years ago. This year's installment proved to be very entertaining. It displayed the high level of talent that Trevecca's students possess. Acoustic music dominated the night, but a little pop and rock was thrown into the mix. Brandon Whiteside and Lori Tripplett were voted into the final round, and after each competitor sang one last song, Lori was declared the 2005 Trojan Idol. Lori was the first girl to ever win this competition! Congratulations, Lori!

The guest judges panel offer compliments and constructive criticism to each contestant.

Contestants Jessica Cantrell, Rachel Osteen, and Sade Jones sing their hearts out and wow the audience.

Singer and songwriter Lori Tripplett impresses the crowd with her beautiful vocals as she sings her way to becoming the 2005 Trojan Idol.

Finalist Brandon Whiteside melts the ladies' hearts and makes the men jealous with his smooth vocals and talent on the guitar.

Homecoming

2005

Homecoming week blasted off to a quick and exciting start with the annual Homecoming banquet. Students enjoyed chocolate and caramel fountains and a full coffee bar, complete with live jazz music. The action continued on Friday when the inauguration of Dr. Boone commenced during chapel time. Afterward followed an entertaining Homecoming Parade, with the sophomore class float coming in first for best class float. The Saints ministry float came in first for best overall float. Our new addition to the roundabout, the Jesus statue, was dedicated shortly after the parade, and the day ended with Trojan Madness—complete with a rap from President Boone. Alumni and students alike spent Friday evening meeting our presidential couple while enjoying some amazing food in the cafeteria. Saturday afternoon produced two blow-out wins for our men's and women's basketball teams, and during half-time in the men's game the Homecoming court was presented. Jerod Perry and Shelley Gilmore were crowned TNU's 2005 Homecoming King and Queen. Overall, Homecoming week was an exciting time for welcoming President and Mrs. Boone.

Mr. TNU

Once a year Trevecca's finest men show off their best attributes in a competition of grace, style, and poise. This year proved to be no different. The host for Mr. TNU this year was Christina Woods. The guys were judged in four different categories: athletic wear, celebrity look-a-like, drag, and talent. The judges for the evening were Denise Boone, Michael Johnson, and Jennifer Neely. The theme was an eighties work-out video. The guys strutted their stuff. They gave their all. When the scores were tallied, only five remained: Chris Brewster, James Dolinger, Caleb Haynes, Josh Boice, and Tommy Byler. The guys then had to go through an intense round of questions. After the first round, only three guys were left: Chris Brewster, Josh Boice, and Tommy Byler. These three had to endure another tough round of questions. After the votes were tallied for the final time, the results were announced. This year's Mr. TNU was Tommy Byler. The sophomore class did a great job putting this event on. It was an evening of great entertainment.

FRIDAY NIGHT LIVE

Friday Night Live is a highly anticipated annual event at Trevecca. Everything from the opening scene to the last sketch amuses and abuses almost as well as its predecessor, NBC's Saturday Night Live. This year's show was no exception. With a living Jesus statue, a very manly Mary Poppins, and great music, it will be difficult to top this year's Friday Night Live.

Live Life. . . Live Reckless

"In the same way, anyone who holds onto life just as it is destroys that life. But if you let it go, reckless in your love, you'll have it forever, real and eternal."

John 12:25

Each summer students from Trevecca join other college students from across the U.S. to spend eight weeks in another country sharing the love of Jesus.

Middle Left: Chris Cotton (Creative Access Alpha), Rob Allred (Albania), Andy McGee (Benin), Mike Kurtz and Chris Pennington (Italy), Joni Jackson (England), Karen Berger (Guatemala), Kaylynn Mayhle (Los Angeles), Jessi Woods (Vancouver), Bethany Mitchell (Long Beach), Lori Davis (Australia), and Rachel Gilbert (Venezuela). Also pictured are several former Trevecca students who were involved with YIM.

Youth in Mission

Junior Jessi Woods worked with the children of Vancouver, Canada, through VBS. "These kids were so special and were so excited to learn about God. My work was such a rewarding experience," Jessie commented.

Above Left: Junior Chris Cotton worked with children living in the Creative Access Alpha, unnamed for safety purposes. While there he enrolled at a local university to learn the language and to get to know the people.

Above Middle: Junior Chris Pennington spent his eight weeks in Italy and learned about Italian culture, including Italian foods.

Food Services

Behind the Scenes: Plant Operations and Food Services are two very important pieces of the Trevecca community. They work behind the scenes to make sure things run smoothly. Plant Operations makes sure that all the buildings are in shape and ready for use. Food Services works tirelessly to feed students and University employees.

Information Technology Services

Behind the Scenes: Two important groups on campus are the people in ITS and Financial Services. ITS makes sure that technology is easily accessible for everybody on campus. The people in Financial Services handle the business and financial work of the University.

This year was truly a rebuilding year for the Trevecca Cheerleading Program. With only one returning cheerleader and a coach who began at the end of last season, the squad came into the season practically starting over. After many long practices and a few bruises, the cheerleaders were able to pull together and have a great season. The squad wowed the fans with their stunts while leading the Moore Maniacs with many crowd-pumping cheers.

The 2005-06 Lady Trajans Basketball team had a truly incredible season. They started off the season with an amazing 19 game winning streak and only 3 losses during the regular season, the ladies never ceased to impress the crowd. With a new coach and a few new players, the dynamics of the team were great. Coach Van Atta made some great changes with the team and he led the ladies to the Elite Eight in the NAIA Tournament. Jackie Weaver wowed everyone with her amazing height and skills and was voted the conference player of the year, as well as, All-American. Ashlie Gilland was also voted All-American. The girls had a truly impressive season and the four graduating seniors will truly be missed.

The 2005-06 Men's Basketball team had a great season. They made it to the Tron-South Championship and held on strong in the NAIA Tournament, making it to the second round by defeating Lombuth. Trevecco started the season with six returning players who led the Trojans to the sweet sixteen in the 2004-05 season. Jerod Perry led the team as the only senior, and Alex Renfroe was conference player of the year as well as All-American. The Trojans have a great road ahead of them although it will be tough to top this season's many victories.

Coaches: Paul DeBose, Leslie Barron, and Luis Del Rio

To defend the 2005 TranSouth Conference Championship, the 2006 Trojans retooled with familiar faces and some new ones. Roné Phelps returned from a year of injury rehabilitation to join Eryn Terry in this past year's senior class. They joined a pair of talented transfers, a promising freshman class, and an experienced and battled-tested group of returning players. Head Coach Ernie Reynolds and assistant Paul DuBose came back for a second year. Added to the staff were long-time Trevecca women's basketball assistant coach Luis Del Rio and graduate assistant Leslie Barron. The staff brought Division-I coaching and playing experience to the Trojan softball program. The Trojans softball players broke several records this year and had an amazing season.

ANNIE GET YOUR GUN

Annie Get Your Gun, this year's fall musical, was a whole lot of down-home fun! The story of Annie Oakley and Frank Butler is a legendary one, and it was obvious that the audience knew the story as they hummed along to the familiar tunes. Crowds were awed by the music, choreography, and Southern drawl.

Above: Orual (Kristin Savage) and Psyche (Kimberly Overstreet) share a sisterly moment as Psyche explains the magical journey she has taken.

Traveler in the Dark

Traveler in the Dark, directed by Christina Woods, was a compelling show about faith and family. The story was full of emotionally charged dialogue that concerned life-altering questions. Although the show had a small cast, it packed a powerful message.

Left: Sam (Ryne Mimbs) thinks about the loss of his dear friend.

Treble Tones and Madrigalians

The Madrigalian singers spent two and a half weeks touring several countries in Europe. In France they found a restaurant named for them, and they made sure that everyone at home would believe them by posing in front of the restaurant. Unfortunately, the restaurant did not allow them to eat for free.

 Front: David Bell, Diana Reeves, Kim Hayward, Holly Russell, Dana Henderson, Josh Fields, Tim Leiphart, and Renita Koehn (director)

Paul DeAngulo is super excited to be surrounded by the talented members of the Covenant Choir. Other members include Josh Fields, Tim Leiphart, Kristin Ponce, Amber Emery, John Patterson, Eric Haskill, Meghan Smith, Aaron Staggs, and Holly Russell. These singers toured North Carolina and Georgia, where they ministering in song and in testimony.

Jacob Morris was a member of Covenant Choir for the first time this year. He enjoys laying down the bass and sporting the stylish robes.

Amanda Snyder and Alaina Yates became friends this year while singing with Covenant Choir. They enjoyed spending time together on tour.

Adoration

Members of Adoration: senior Douglas Johnson, junior Jennifer Berry, freshman Mallory Guthrie, sophomore Tyler Evick, freshman Jordan Wood, and sophomore Chris Anderson. Douglas, Jennifer, Tyler and Chris were in the group last year.

"Those who worship him must do it out of their very being, their spirits, their true selves, in adoration."
John 4:24

The members of Adoration spent most of their weekends traveling throughout the Southeast singing in Nazarene churches.

EverPraise

The members of EverPraise spent lots of time practicing. Their practice paid off when they sang in different Nazarene churches throughout the Southeast region of the United States.

"Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting. Then all the people said 'Amen' and 'Praise the LORD.'"
1 Chronicles 16:36

Darda

The Darda has been a Trevecca tradition on campus for more than fifty years. The name Darda is taken from I Kings 4:31. Darda was a very wise biblical character comparable to Solomon. Pictured to the left is some of the many volumes of the Darda that have been produced in the past.

University Life Editor Annie Craddock is all business while she works on her pages.

2006 Yearbook

College Ministries

Nashville First Church of the Nazarene • 510 Woodland Street • Nashville, TN 37206 • 615-255-1289

Congratulations, Nathan! We are so proud of you. Continue to keep God the center of your life and He will always guide you in the direction He has planned for you. We love you!

Grandma & Grandpa Barefield

From babyhood, to childhood, to teenager, to young manhood, we have watched you develop into the unique and talented person God intended for you to become. You have made us extremely proud each step of the way. Your Grandparents, Richard and Wanda Beckham

Nathan, you have been such a joy from the day you were born (except for a few sleepless nights, but that was long ago). We want only the best for you and for you to be happy in God's will. You are beginning the third generation of pastors, and we couldn't be any prouder. I know God has many more accomplishments in store for you. With all my love, Mom Proverbs 10:1 says, "A wise son brings joy to his father." Nathan, you have more than fulfilled this verse with me. I am so proud of you! You have reached a great landmark in your life. My prayer for you is in a song by Lee Ann Womack, "I Hope You Dance." She sings, "When you get the choice to sit it out or dance, I hope you dance." Do not be afraid to dream big and have a faith that risks great things for His glory. Always do God's will and keep Him at the center of your life. From a very proud father who loves you with all his heart, Dad

Nathan Barefield

Congratulations

Jonathan R. Moore

It seems just yesterday you dashed off to school for the first time. We are proud of you and your accomplishments. You have run a great race in leadership and creative achievements throughout your Trevecca years. You are now embarking on a new race. God is preparing you to make a difference in this world. We love you.

Mom & Dad

...Run with endurance the race God has set before you. Keep your eyes on Jesus, on whom your faith depends from start to finish. Hebrews 12:1-2

Ashlie Gilland #42

Wow! What great memories we have of your years at Trevecca! We are so proud of you and feel blessed to be your parents. You are our gift from God and we are thankful for the woman you have grown to be. Good luck in the future and remember we will always be in your court.

Love From

A note from the editor

Faithful Darda readers,

What a year it has been. It's been a truly historic time for our university. In November Trevecca inaugurated its eleventh president, Dan Boone. Trevecca also dedicated the statue of Jesus in the round-about. Five athletic teams reached their highest national rankings in school history.

When it came time to choose a theme for this volume of the Darda, a lot of ideas came to mind, but none quite fit. Then I started thinking about our campus. In October more than 60 TNU students and faculty members gave up their fall break to assist those in the Gulf Coast who were devastated by Hurricane Katrina. Every Tuesday night at 6:30, more than 50 college students minister and share the Gospel with countless children from the Napier Community through King's Kids. Every Sunday afternoon at 4:30 Trevecca students join with Towers residents for a student-led time of worship. Every summer the TAG team goes to a foreign country on a mission trip to help those less fortunate. Numerous TNU students give up their summers to spend with families and churches in different countries through Youth In Mission. In December more than 100 Trevecca students sponsored Angel Tree children and bought presents for them so that they could have gifts to open on Christmas.

All of these actions are great illustrations of how our campus is active. We don't just sit around. We take action. We help those who are in need. Our campus is always active. There is always something going on. That's why "Hands On" is such an appropriate theme for this year's Darda. The school's motto is "To be rather than to seem." Our campus has done a great job of being rather than just seeming. It is my dream that Trevecca will continue its tradition of being proactive. Volume 82 of the Darda was put together with a lot of hard work. It wouldn't have been possible without the help of several people. Our sponsor, Jan Greathouse, has been a tremendous asset to us. She has spent countless hours editing pages, planning the budget, and taking us out to dinner. Without her dedication, this yearbook would not have been possible. I also have had an amazing staff. They have spent so much time in the office working on the yearbook. They deserve most of the credit for this book. Annie Craddock, Erin Clements, Diana Key, and Becky Turner have done amazing jobs as section editors. Annie and Erin saved me many times when I didn't know what I was doing. Mike Kurtz, Michelle Osborne, and Katie Cox have done an amazing job as writers. Megan Carden and Eric Mayle have been very reliable and professional photographers. Amber Bledsoe and Adrienne Merritt have also been really helpful as staff members. Jonathon Moore and Christina Woods have also provided much needed assistance. Mary Harris and the Herff Jones Company have been a great source of help as well. There are many other people who have helped out, but they are too numerous to mention.

I leave you with a three-fold blessing from Numbers 6:24-26: "The Lord bless you and keep you: The Lord make his face to shine upon you, and be gracious to you: The Lord lift up his countenance upon you, and give you peace."

In His Service,

Tommy Byler
Darda Editor 2005-2006

Production Page

The 82nd volume of the Darda was produced using InDesign CS2. It was created and edited by Trevecca students. The production of the book was done by Herff Jones, Inc. The Herff Jones, Inc., representative was Mary Harris. The factory representative was Robyn Williams. The sponsor was Jan Greathouse.

The Darda was a publication of the Student Government Association of Trevecca Nazarene University.

The cover was designed by Annie Craddock.

All headlines were Bauhaus 93. All captions were Tw Cen MT.

Photographs were taken by Eric Mayle, Megan Carden, Jonathon Moore, Mandi Callis, Jan Greathouse, Elizabeth Streight, Matt Nicklow, and Tommy Byler. Sports action photos were provided by Bill Thorup, Xpress Studios.
